Dear Brian,

Here is a list of the available books and an order form.

I suggest that although it is much reading, you beagin with the earliest of the books you get and read them in order of appearance. I think it will mean more to you this way.

Avoidong the paranoid is not easy, especially when promoting it yields a nice return for those ripoff artists doing it extensively on the campuses.

This has become so much of a problem I have returned to speaking for what little one man can do to undo the harm.

The problem is more serious because the average person who begins with faith has no reason or basis in fact for questioning, especially when accompanied by pictures that are said to mean what they do not and too often to show what they do not.

Hope your class is meaningful for you.

And that you can distinguish between the real and the unreal.

Best,
